ANSWER TO MY ADV'T IN

The EVENING DEMOCRAT.

"I would earnestly advise them for their good to order this paper to be punctually served up and to be looked upon as a part of the tea equipage."—ADDISON.

CIRCULATION.

There are more Sedalia people regular readers of the EVENING DEMOCRAT than any other paper.

It's another landslide.

Who's cock of the walk now?

The force bill and protection did it.

Missouri was "redeemed" many years ago.

TAMMANY HALL was at work in New York.

GREAT is the democracy, the party of the people.

WHOO!-LA! We went for them and they are ours.

"ONLY one day since Warner was defeated for governor."

The Globe-Democrat concedes a grand democratic victory.

OUR republican friends are expected to continue to stand up for Missouri.

ILLINOIS did herself proud in defeating Fifer and giving Cleveland a majority.

The Globe-Democrat says, "It is a big victory for the democrats but a bigger defeat for the republicans."

MAJOR WILLIAM WARNER has made more noise and got less wool than usually happens in a campaign.

A REPUBLICAN "worker" attempted to challenge Cleveland's vote yesterday, but he was hustled out of the way.

The grand old democratic party is again in the saddle bearing a commission from the people of the United States.

The most heartless roasting Harrison will receive is from the men who were lately praising him as the incarnation of statesmanship. Such is politics.

WHILE there is a growing belief that the Australian ballot system is not a perfect safeguard against the briber and corruption fund, says the Moberly Monitor, wholesale methods so much in vogue where they are most needed are knocked out. The man who now accepts a voter's promise to cast a ballot as he is paid, cares little for his money or gives everybody else credit for living a life far above his debased plane. Misconnections on well laid and expensive plans will open their eyes to the largeness of the failure on this plan. New ways of corruption will be devised by the smart rascals in time, but only to a limited extent then, the wholesale buying has seen its best day.

STONE proved a grand leader for the democracy. He carried his own county by 1700 plurality; He carried Saline, Leonard's county, by 2000 and snowed Major Warner under by 3000 in the latter's home county of Jackson. That is what comes from a grand man standing up for a grand state in grand style.

OUR republican contemporary trotted out its poultry in its first edition this morning, but the roosters crowed in such a half-hearted, disconsolate sort of way that they were promptly called in and an extra issued with not a chicken in sight.

THE "poor old Gazette" has the sympathy of the DEMOCRAT in its sad bereavement. It does not seem to have succeeded in getting either the city or the county printing—the two things Editor Streit claimed to be here to secure.

THE democrats in Kansas have every reason to rejoice. They were powerless to carry the state but they succeeded in taking it away from Harrison and putting it where it would do no harm.

ONE of the most gratifying results of the democratic tidal wave is that the republicans have probably lost the senate as well as the presidency. Thus are two grand victories in one.

It is still grand old Missouri, the home of intelligence, virtue and prosperity. Our republican friends may share with us the honor of standing up for this great commonwealth.

THE country is all right; the state is all right; but Pettis county indicates a break or two that is universally regretted by all democrats even in this hour of general rejoicing.

HON. JOHN T. HEARD is again chosen as the congressman from this district. The good work he has done in the past will be repeated during the next two years.

THE republicans of Sedalia take their medicine like little men. Many of them bet on the wrong man, but they don't kick nor whine.

THE DEMOCRAT advised its republican friends not to bet on the election. Those who took the advice are richer to-day.

CHARLEY YEATER will be a Sedalia man in the right place this winter when he takes his seat in the senate.

ALL the states are all right except a few unfortunates who have not yet seen the light.

THE democrats might have done better in Pettis county, and they will next time.

NANCY HANKS didn't beat her record but Cleveland and Stone did.

THE GENERAL RESULT.

The returns from the election in the United States yesterday show a veritable democratic landslide.

Cleveland is elected president by sweeping majorities and he will be backed by a democratic house and by a senate either democratic or else with the independents holding the balance of power.

This means two things certainly, whatever else it may mean. One of these certainties is that we are to have no force bill; the people of the various states are to be permitted to manage their elections free from the dictation of the federal machine.

The other certainty is that the protective tariff system is doomed. Hereafter taxes will be collected for public purposes only, and the policy of taking the earnings of one man to enrich another will be abandoned as robbery under the process of law.

These two reforms are worth all it has cost to win the victory.

They will give hope and confidence to the masses of the people, revive business in all sections, insure peace and domestic tranquility and open the way for a grander and more general prosperity than the country has ever known before.

The republican party put itself on trial before the public and the verdict of 1890 has been repeated and emphasized.

The result will be that thousands of the members of that organization will go to work to re-form the line of battle for the next engagement, and failing in that effort the party will go to pieces as any organization must that has failed to keep pace with the intellectual progress of the age.

The result of yesterday, so grand and so far-reaching, is one that should and will encourage every real democrat.

Having won this battle, the democracy has only to remain true to its mission and to fight the tendency toward socialism or partialism in the new party as it has the centralizing tendencies of its late antagonist.

THE MISSOURI VICTORY.

The democratic victory in Missouri was, of course, expected by every intelligent voter who did not allow his party enthusiasm to obscure his good judgment.

Still the victory is highly gratifying.

It is a source of pride that a party can manage the affairs of Missouri as long as the democrats have, and still leave no ground for complaint or popular dissatisfaction.

This is at once complimentary to past state administrations and to the able, pure standard bearers who were put forward by the democracy this year.

Our republican friends sacrificed Harrison for Warner and made the strongest fight possible on what they termed "state issues."

The result shows not only that Missouri is a democratic state rooted and grounded in the principles of the party, but that the voters and tax-payers of the state heartily approve of and endorse the policy of the democratic party in state affairs.

Now let us hear no more of "poor old Missouri," but let us all, like loyal citizens, stand up for the honor and good name of our state and fight our political battles upon real, live issues "Stand up for Missouri."

CONCEDES EVERYTHING.

The republicans concede everything the democrats claim in regard to yesterday's election. The Globe-Democrat says:

"The democrats have carried the country. All the doubtful states of the north have declared in their favor, and they have held their own in all the ex-slave states. They have carried New York by a large plurality than the state gave to any party before since 1872, when Grant swept it by 35,000. Their lead in Indiana is greater than was that of the republicans in 1888, which was 2,348. They have also carried Illinois, with 7 or 8 of the electoral votes of Michigan. The republicans have lost in the west, in addition to these states, the states of Colorado, Nebraska, Wyoming and Nevada, which have been won by Weaver.

The house of representatives has also gone democratic, and the senate probably is keeping it company. Republican reverses have been sustained in several states which elect legislatures that are to choose successors to republican senators whose terms end on March 4 next. In the present senate the republicans have forty-seven members, the democrats thirty-nine and the farmers' alliance two. Thus the republicans have a plurality of only eight and a majority of but six in that body. Considerably over half of the twenty-nine senators whose terms expire next March are republicans.

If the democrats win four of these republican seats without losing any of their own the senate will be tied as between the republicans and democrats, with Stevenson's casting vote in their favor. As the republicans are gaining nowhere, but losing in many places, the democrats are likely to have the next senate."

GIVING IT UP.

From the Kansas City Journal.

MEN and brethren, where are we at?

CONFIDENTIALLY speaking, this wildcat democracy seems to have walloped us.

The McKinley bill did its own talking, but it doesn't seem to have done its own fighting.

The people of the United States seem to think they want more of Grover Cleveland. The people of the United States have exhibited surprisingly poor taste.

THE melancholy days have come, The saddest of the year; The doubtful states are all heard from, And they—oh, dear, oh, dear.

AMUSEMENTS.

"The Private Secretary," the most amusing home-spun comedy will be produced at Wood's opera house to-night.

Since its last presentation here, Mr. Gillette has made several important changes in the play, which are chronicled as most emphatic improvements. He condensed the original third act into the second act, wrote an entirely new third act, giving an entirely different coloring to the finale of his humorous story. The comedy comprises many well known comedians, and was especially selected for the present tour by Mr. Edwin Travers to present the play in excellence, exceeding all past efforts. To this end he certainly has succeeded in receiving the encomiums of the press, where the company have appeared.

The old secretary is said to have renewed his youthful vigor of former days and seems to be in a much healthier condition than ever.

Unquestionably, he may be well christened the prince of consistent humor. His droll happenings, his numerous errors, interrupted with quaint sayings and ridiculous funny posings spun in a most artful manner by the clever author, keeps an audience in a constant strain of rich laughter, and those who have enjoyed it, seem to relish it as eagerly each season as at its initial introduction.

AN APPROACHING MARRIAGE.

Two Well-Known Young Society People to be Wedded During the Present Month.

Invitations are out announcing the nuptials of Mr. William E. Bard, of this city, and Miss Mazee McGrew, of Lexington, Mo., at the First Baptist church in that city, on Tuesday evening, Nov. 22d, at 7 p.m.

The event is no surprise to the many friends of the young people as their engagement has ever been watched with pleasure and the happy couple regarded as eminently fitted for each other.

A more beautiful and charming young lady than Miss Mazee McGrew has never visited in Sedalia. She is possessed of all those rare accomplishments that make women admired and loved. She is one of the reigning belles of aristocratic old Lexington and the gentleman who has won her queenly hand is to be highly congratulated. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. McGrew, the family being one of the wealthiest in the state. Miss McGrew has traveled extensively and is a social favorite wherever she is known.

Mr. William E. Bard is one of Sedalia's most substantial and progressive young business men. His family is one of the oldest in the city. Mr. Bard for several years was regarded as being suspiciously near bachelorhood, but "the best laid plans of mice and men gang aft aglee." He is a handsome, chivalrous gentleman; popular throughout the state and possessed of business qualifications that have secured him a goodly portion of the world's goods. For several months he has been busily engaged in erecting a residence in the western part of the city that is a model. The interior furnishings are the most elegant and costly in Sedalia.

The DEMOCRAT extends its warmest wishes for the complete happiness of the young couple and trusts that their married life may ever be filled with sweetness and brightness, rivaling the rare beauty of the fair bridge and the manly strength of the groom.

"WHO IS SWEENEY?"

The Green Ribbon Brigade That Surprised the Kansas People at Parsons.

Political parties have been as numerous in Kansas this year as fleas in an old barn, to use an agricultural phrase, and it has been a difficult matter to keep each party separate at the rallies.

Parsons had a big rally last Monday night and a large crowd was present. Some wore Humphrey badges, some Hudson badges, Weaver was also in it and hayseed flew around like dust. The general office boys concluded that they would live up matters and proceed to have 300 badges printed with the name "M. Sweeney" upon them. The crowd marched down the street in a body and began to offer bets on the probable success of the new candidate. The rustics that had gathered in town were completely nonplussed and wondered who was the new Moses that had come to lead them to victory. The boys began cheering and yelling for Sweeney, and in a short time his name was on every tongue; he was a popular man; he was a friend of the workingmen; their wages would be doubled and each man in the land would have a chicken in his pot on Sunday.

The genial master of transportation had smelt the smoke of battle from afar and grew suspicious of an ambush. There were loud and repeated calls for the candidate but he had secreted himself, and the disconsolate voters are wondering to this day if their Moses was translated to a brighter realm.

The genial gentleman smiles and winks the other eye when asked at what time he expects to take his seat

A Cholera Scare.

A reported outbreak of cholera at Helmetta, N. J., created much excitement in that vicinity. Investigation showed that the disease was not cholera but a violent dysentery, which is almost as severe and dangerous as cholera. Mr. Walter Willard, a prominent merchant of Jamesburg, two miles from Helmetta, says Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy has given great satisfaction in the most severe cases of dysentery. It is certainly one of the best things ever made. For sale by Aug. Fleischmann, Druggist.

Too Much of a Risk.

It is not unusual for colds contracted in the fall to hang on all winter. In such cases catarrh or chronic bronchitis are almost sure to result. A fifty cent bottle of Chamberlain's cough remedy will cure any cold. Can you afford to risk so much for so small an amount? This remedy is intended especially for bad colds and croup and can always be depended upon. For sale by Aug. Fleischmann.

Notice is hereby given that the city council of the city of Sedalia, Missouri, will receive and consider bids or proposals for the paving of the alley running east and west through block twenty-two (22) of the Smith & Martin addition to said city, and extending from the west line
of Ohio avenue to the west line of Lamine avenue, as provided for by an ordinance of said city, entitled "An ordinance providing for the paving of the alley running east and west in block 22 of the original Smith & Martin plat of the city of Sedalia, Missouri," passed October 24th, 1892, and approved October 25th, 1892.All bids shall be based on the specifications and conform to the provisions and requirements of said ordinance, and shall be

Be it resolved by the city council of the city of Sedalia, Missouri, as follows,
to-wit:That we deem and declare it necessary that Engineer street be macadamized
from the north line of the cemetery
north to the city limits, and that this resolution be published in the paper
doing the city printing, for two consecutive weeks.Passed this 24th day of October, 1892.

in Sedalia. Make a note of this.

THE ELECTION.

First Returns of the Election More Than Usually Meager.

DEMOCRATS CARRY NEW YORK.

They Also Claim Other of the Doubtful States, Which Republicans Refuse
to Concede—Later Returns
to Decide.New York.
New York, Nov. 9.—The total vote
for president in New York city with three election districts missing is:
Cleveland 174,885, Harrison 99,758. Plurality for Cleveland, 75,127.Returns show the following result in the vote for congressmen in New York state: Democrats elected, 21; republicans, 13; democratic loss, 3.BROOKLYN, Nov. 9.—With eight election districts missing, this county gives Cleveland 89,808, Harrison 64,676, a majority for Cleveland of 25,132. The entire city and county democratic ticket has been elected by a big majority.Cleveland carries Queens county by about 2,500 plurality, a gain over 1888
of 900. Harrison carried Suffolk county by about 700, a gain of 200 compared with 1888.New York, Nov. 9, 2 a. m.—Chairman Carter, of the Republican national committee, issues a bulletin claiming the election of Harrison and Reid by 8 majority in the electoral college.In 1888 New York gave Harrison 650,338;
Cleveland, 639,957; Streeter, 628; Fisk, 30,211.
Total vote, 1,321,510. Rep. plurality, 14,573.Illinois.
CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—The indications are that the state of Illinois has gone for Cleveland and Stevenson by 5,000 to 10,000 plurality and that the entire state democratic ticket is elected. Later returns may change these figures, as the county districts yet to be heard from are likely to cut down the democratic gain in the county precincts.Chicago and Cook county give Cleveland and Stevenson and Altgeld, the democratic candidate for governor, not less than 15,000 plurality, which will probably more than offset the republican majority in the country precincts
as the county thus far has shown the Harrison vote to be less than in 1888,
when Harrison had a plurality of 22,000 in the whole state. Two hundred and twenty-two precincts in the state outside of Chicago give Harrison 41,259, Cleveland 35,829. The same precincts in 1888 gave Harrison 38,748 and Cleveland 32,305, so that Cleveland's net gain is 1,523.The city press association shows that 500 precincts out of 693 precincts in Chicago give Cleveland 97,344; Harrison, 72,190. This gives Cleveland a lead of 25,154 thus far in Cook county. As Harrison's plurality in the state outside of Cook county in 1888 was but 21, 000, and the county returns thus far show a falling off of 1,528 in 220 precincts, it would seem that the result must be very close—probably not over 5,000 for Cleveland.In 1888 ILLINOIS gave Harrison 370,475; Cleveland, 348,371; Streeter, 7,194; Fisk, 21,793. Total vote, 747,833. Rep. plurality, 22,104.Colorado.
DENVER, Col., Nov. 9.—At 11 o'clock,
with the exception of a few precincts,
no official returns have been received.
In these Harrison has shown a loss of 295. The state returns are equally slow in coming in, but the indications are that almost the entire Weaver ticket has been elected.
No figures could be given last night.
The only doubtful candidate on the Weaver ticket is Waite for governor, who appears to have run behind his ticket. The vote on Arapahoe county, which has been republican for years by 5,000 majority, will this year be very close, if not in favor of Weaver. Seventeen small towns in Arapahoe county
outside of Denver give Cleveland 627; Harrison 303.The republicans, however, do not give up Colorado and claim that Harrison will carry it by a neat plurality.
In 1888 COLORADO gave Harrison 51,831;
Cleveland, 37,435; Streeter, 1,287; Fisk, 2,190.
Total vote, 91,653. Rep. plurality, 13,496.Pennsylvania.
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 9.—While the official count is progressing slowly
throughout the city there is every indication that the Baker ballot law has met with a decidedly favorable reception. The vote polled is unusually heavy, and the republicans carry everything by the usual majority. Disputes have been less numerous than usual, and very few arrests have been made.On the state ticket it is generally conceded that Gen. William A. Lilly and
Maj. Alexander McDowell, republican candidates for congressmen at large,
and John Dean for supreme court, will be given a heavy majority in this city.In the Third district the regular republican nominee, Capt. W. W. Kerr, has been defeated by the present incumbent. In the Third ward, the democratic stronghold of the city, McAleer's majority is estimated at 1,200.In 1888 PENNSYLVANIA gave Harrison 526, 001; Cleveland, 446,623; Fisk, 30,947. Total vote,
972,568. Rep. plurality, 89,458.Ohio.
COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 9.—The returns
come in very slowly, the necessary slowness in counting the blanket ballots making the reports unusually late,
but from all points come news of republican gains, only isolated precincts showing democratic gains. Returns from 250 precincts out of 2,800 in the state, at 10 o'clock, show republican gains averaging twelve to the precinct,
and the indications from these meager returns are that Harrison has carried the state with a plurality between 25,000 and 30,000.S. M. Taylor, republican candidate for secretary of state, defeats W. A.
Taylor, democrat. Democratic congressmen are elected in six districts
and the indications are that the republicans have elected the fifteen other members of the delegation. Democratic congressmen are elected as follows:Third, Houk; Fourth, Layton; Fifth, Donovan; Twelfth, Outhwaite; Thirteenth, Haro; Seventeenth, Richards.
Republican congressmen are probablyelected as follows: First, Storey; Second, Caldwell; Sixth, Hulick; Seventh, Wilson, Eighth, Strong; Ninth, Ashley;
Tenth, Enoch; Eleventh, Grosvenor;
Fourteenth, F. C. Johnson; Fifteenth,
Van Voorhis; Sixteenth, Poorman;
Eighteenth, Morgan; Nineteenth,
Northway; Twentieth, White; Twenty-
first, Hodge.Local influences may reduce the majorities of the republican congressional candidates in the Ninth, Fourteenth and Twenty-first districts,
and may defeat one or two. Ohio did not this year elect a new legislature.In 1888 OHIO gave Harrison 416,054; Cleveland, 399,455; Streeter, 3,498; Fisk, 21,356. Total vote, 840,379. Rep. plurality, 19,599.New Jersey.
TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 9.—The New Jersey returns are scattering and meager. It is estimated that Cleveland has carried the state by 7,000 plurality.
The result of the gubernatorial contest is in doubt. H. S. Londenstager, republican, for congress in the First district, and J. G. Gardner, republican, in the Second district, are elected. The complexion of the legislature is in doubt.In 1888 NEW JERSEY gave Harrison 144,344;
Cleveland, 131,493; Fisk, 7,901. Total vote, 333,
741. Dem. plurality, 7,149.Wisconsin.
MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 9.—Returns
from the interior of the state are coming in slowly, owing to the cumbersome Australian ballot system. Returns so far received indicate that Harrison will carry the state by an increased plurality over four years ago. Spooner is running well up with the national ticket and his election is considered assured.Later—Chairman Wall claims the state for Cleveland by a majority of 15,
000. Chairman Payne says Wisconsin will be for Harrison 2,000, and possibly 4,000.In 1888 WISCONSIN gave Harrison 175,553;
Cleveland, 155,332; Streeter, 8,322; Fisk, 14,377.
Total vote, 354,584. Rep. plurality, 21,321.Michigan.
DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 8.—The returns
from the state up to midnight are so meager that nothing definite is known.
The democrats claim the election of their congressmen in the First, Second, Fourth, Sixth, Seventh and Tenth districts, and also that seven electors for Cleveland have been chosen. On the state ticket Morse (dem.), for governor, is elected, but the rest of the ticket, it is likely, has gone republican. No returns whatever are in on the legislature. The returns in the state are now coming. It will be Wednesday night before the result is known with any degree of correctness.In 1888 MICHIGAN gave Harrison 236,387;
Cleveland, 213,469; Streeter, 4,555; Fisk, 21,594.
Total vote, 476,273. Rep. plurality, 22,918.South Carolina.
CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 9.—With the possible exception of the Seventh district, South Carolina returns a solid democratic delegation to congress and chooses nine Cleveland electors. The congressional delegation will stand as follows: First, A. N. Brawley, re-elected; Second, W. J. Talbot; Third, A. C. Lat-
timer; Fourth, George W. Shell, re-elected; Fifth, T. J. Strait; Sixth, John L. McLaughlin.In the Seventh district, the candidates are Gen. E. W. Moise (dem.) and G. W. Murray, colored (rep.). The district has a very large colored majority.
It is represented in the present congress
by William Elliott (dem.), who received 3,709 votes against 4,700 cast for two republican contestants. It is quite possible that Gen. Moise may secure the election, thus making the delegation
solid as now.In 1888 SOUTH CAROLINA gave Harrison 13, 736; Cleveland 15,828. Total vote, 73,730. Dem.
plurality, 52,839.Kentucky.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 9.—The democratic victory in Kentucky was a most sweeping one. The weather was crisp with sunshine the whole day long and a heavy vote was polled. Owing to the secret ballot law the returns are coming in slowly. It is estimated that Cleveland will have 55,000 majority. Kentucky sends ten democrats to congress and one republican. In this, the Fifth district, Carnahan (dem.) was re-elected by 5,000 majority over Wilson (rep). In the Second district, Ellis (dem.) was re-elected over Pettit (pop.) by about 2,000 majority. In the Eleventh district Silas
Adams (rep.) defeated J. R. Hindman (dem.) by about 2,000, democratic gain of about 1,500. The other successful candidates, all democrats, are First district Stone (re-elected); Third district,
Goodnight (re-elected); Fourth district,
Montgomery (re-elected); Sixth district,
A. S. Berry, successor to Dickerson; Seventh district, Breckinridge (re-elected); Eighth district, William C.
Creary (re-elected); Ninth district,
Payner (re-elected); Tenth district, M.
B. Lister, successor to Kendall, elected.In 1888 KENTUCKY gave Harrison 155,134;
Cleveland, 138,801; Streeter, 622; Fisk, 5,532.
Total vote, 344,781. Dem. plurality, 28,636.Virginia.

The Preacher Back.

Constable Robert Ramsey arrived last evening with Rev. W. C. Howell, the colored preacher whose case has been given at length in the DEMOCRAT. The trip was a long and tedious one, Victoria, Texas, being southwest of Galveston and not a great distance from Galveston. Howell denies his guilt and says the story has been manufactured by his enemies. He was nervous about returning, fearing violence. He is reticent and will not be interviewed.

Sedalia Is His Home.

Traveling men, as a rule, are so thrown from pillar to post in their wanderings that they hardly know where they belong. Until four years ago, Taylor Blow, the popular St. Louis drug drummer, had never voted the presidential ticket and he had reached the age of—well, he's no spring chicken. He then and there decided that he would not be cheated out of his right of suffrage and has voted a strong democratic ticket ever since.

They Shed Tears.

The crew of M., K. & T. passenger train No. 4, which arrived late last evening is said to have had seven strong republicans in it. The polls were closed when the train arrived and the boys got down and covered themselves with dust.

Ripens Tabules have come to sea.

B. H. INGRAM.

The Northwestern Masonic Aid Association of Chicago, has appointed B. H. Ingram, of this city, manager of agencies for Missouri, with headquarters at Sedalia. Persons desiring sound life insurance at reasonable prices would do well to consult him. Non-masons admitted.

RISING FROM THE RANKS.

The Chance to Become an Officer Now Open to Every Young Private Soldier.

The following article is clipped to show the Sedalia rifles that there are new possibilities of greatness for young soldiers:

The New York Herald's Washington correspondent says nine aspirants from the ranks for commissions as officers in the army have succeeded in passing the prescribed examination. Eleven in all passed the examinations by preliminary boards, but in the final examination just concluded at Fort Leavenworth two failed.

General Schofield is preparing a new set of regulations governing the promotion of enlisted men to be officers in the army. Heretofore selections from the ranks for Second Lieutenants have been confined to noncommissioned officers. Now the competition is open to every soldier in the army who has served two years and who is under 30 years of age. This means that a larger percentage of promotions from the ranks than formerly will hereafter be made, and that there will be no chance for the civilian obtaining a commission unless he first undergoes the hardship of army life for two years. It is understood that the examinations prescribed by the regulations are to be even more severe than those hitherto prescribed for noncommissioned officers. Preliminary boards are to be convened in each of the several military departments to inquire into the moral character of the candidates before and after enlistment and otherwise determine whether it is worth while for them to enter the final competition. As the examinations are required by law to be competitive, a single board will be convened at Fort Leavenworth, Kas.

Died of Pneumonia.

A one-year-old child of James Ellis, living 4½ miles north of Clinton, died yesterday at 11 a. m., of pneumonia and was buried to-day at 4 p. m. at the Clopton cemetery.

Death of His Father.

Superintendent Charles Carroll, of the electric street railway, received the sad message yesterday afternoon that his father, who had passed three score and ten, was dead at his home in Oneonta, New York, after a short illness.

Mr. Carroll was much affected by the sad news, as it was wholly unexpected.

His father had recently returned from a visit to his boyhood home in Concord, New Hampshire, where he had not been in forty years. He was in the best of health at this time, and his was the first death in the family. He leaves a wife and six children, two girls and four boys.

Mr. Carroll left for New York last night.

PERSONAL.

Will Woods is up from Parsons, but he doesn't smile.

Mrs. Chas. Kelk, on West Fifth street, is entertaining Miss Myrtle Daniels, a charming young lady of Holden.

Vice President Purdy accompanied by his little daughter, her nurse and the matron of his house, went north to Chicago last evening.

Mrs. J. H. McCalley, sister of Mrs. John T. Heard, left at noon for her home in Washington, D. C., after spending the summer with Mrs. Heard.

J. H. Fitzpatrick, of Supt. H. G. Clark's office at the depot, left at noon for St. Louis where he will remain a couple of days and witness a performance of the Warde-James company, of which his old army friend, Bob Willett, is a member. Fitz proposes to see the bloodless hoodoo which George Wright told him about.

A Happy Marriage.

A happy marriage was consummated in East Sedalia at 6 o'clock last evening. Mr. J. W. Divers, of this city, and Miss Lillian Davis, of Warrensburg, were wedded at the home of the groom's parents, No. 906 East Fifth Street. A number of specially invited guests were present and hearty congratulations were showered upon the young couple. Miss Mollie Heeds, a warm personal friend of the bride, was present from Warrensburg. The young people will make the Quarry city their future home. The DEMOCRAT extends its best wishes.

The Excitement Last Night.

The different places where the returns were received last night were the scenes of great excitement. Those who had sat on the fence and bet their money, as they thought, in a cool, calm manner, were delirious. The republicans claimed everything, as likewise did the democrats.

Everybody believed everything, but would admit nothing. The thunder from the democratic artillery finally began to tell and the most sanguine republican soon lost his nerve. Everybody hurried and the reading of the returns could hardly be heard.

Will Entertain This Evening.

Mrs. J. C. Van Riper will receive this evening from 9 to 11 o'clock at her home on West Broadway. The occasion is in honor of her guests, Misses Fuller and Durfee. Mrs. Van Riper is a most elegant entertainer and her beautiful home will be thronged with guests.

It's a Dandy.

The Republic was served to its many subscribers in Sedalia this morning in most elegant style. C. S. Dexter, the agent in Sedalia, with the assistance of E. A. Stewart,

Mat Hough, Jordan Scott and Owen Brown, had delivered to the list of 515 subscribers the paper just 58 minutes after the train bringing the paper to Sedalia had stopped. Dexter says he lost money on the day by hiring extra route boys, but the paper "got there just the same."

Set Free To-Day.

Clinton Sylvester, Austin Cushmanberry and Arthur Odell were released from jail to-day after serving a week for obstructing the Missouri Pacific railway.

Police Court.

Martin Briggs showed up with a drunk which cost him $10. Pat Cramer had a like misfortune.

His Goloshes Arrived.

The "Private Secretary" company came in at noon and will play at the opera house to-night.
